When you are walking, training and touring with Go-Mann Adventures we want you to enjoy your time exploring the Isle of Man with us. We prepare and train hard to provide you with a quality experience. Please read through these sections of the website before enquiring about the availability of places. Before booking you will be asked to confirm you have read the event description, accept these terms and conditions and, if registering for a guided walk or skills course, you will be asked to complete a Registration form. Please follow the guidance and instructions of your guide at all times. This is for your own safety and for that of others in your group. Your guide is qualified in Outdoor First Aid, carries a first aid kit, an emergency group shelter and is trained in emergency procedures.

Go-Mann Adventures holds public liability insurance and a copy of our certificate and policy are available on request.

GENERAL GUIDANCE

It is at the walk leader's/guide's discretion to change the route of a walk should the weather conditions, or other extraneous circumstances, deem it necessary to change a route.

Walk leaders/guides may refuse to accept participants who in their opinion are inadequately equipped or not able to complete the chosen route.

Please contact in advance if you want advice about appropriate clothing or fitness levels. We'll always try to help!

The Isle of Man is beautiful in sunshine as well as storm and we walk in all types of weather (unless we feel it is unsafe to do so).

Changes may be made to advertised walks at short notice to take account of weather, ground conditions and provide you with a great day out!
